While on supervised release, the defendant shall comply with the standard conditions of supervision adopted by this Court, in General Order 99-9. The defendant shall report to the probation office in the district to which the defendant is released within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.

For offenses committed on or after September 13, 1994: The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. - 2) You shall not leave the judicial district or other specified geographic area without the permission of the Court or probation officer.
- 3) You shall report to the Probation Office as directed by the Court or probation officer, and shall submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month.
- 4) You shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer and follow the instructions of the probation officer.
- 5) You shall support your dependents and meet other family responsibilities.
- 6) You shall work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.

USA vs. Lisa James

- 15) You shall refrain from possessing a firearm, destructive device, or other dangerous weapon. Possession of a firearm will result in mandatory revocation of your term of supervision. This prohibition does not apply to misdemeanor cases unless special condition imposed by Court.
- 16) Unless suspended by the Court, you shall submit to one substance abuse test within the first 15 days of supervision and at least two periodic substance abuse tests thereafter, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §§ 3563(a)(4) and 3583(d);

- 18) The balance of any financial obligation ordered by this Court shall be paid in regular monthly installments approved by the probation officer, the full amount to be paid 90 days prior to expiration of supervision. You will notify the probation officer of any material change in your economic circumstances that might affect your ability to pay restitution, fines, or special assessments.

The defendant shall also comply with the following special conditions:

1. You shall submit to search of person, property, vehicles, business, and residence to be conducted in a reasonable manner and at a reasonable time by, or at the direction of, the probation officer.

5. You are prohibited from owning, maintaining or using a firearm.

THE DEFENDANT IS ADVISED OF HIS/HER RIGHT TO APPEAL WITHIN 10 DAYS.

THE COURT FINDS that you have been sentenced in accordance with the terms of the plea agreement and that you have waived your right to appeal and to collaterally attack this matter. The waiver has been knowingly and voluntarily made with an understanding of the consequences and that it comports with the factual basis of the plea and plea agreement.

The Court may change the conditions of probation or supervised release or extend the term of supervision, if less than the authorized maximum, at any time during the period of probation or supervised release. The Court may issue a warrant and revoke the original or any subsequent sentence for a violation occurring during the period of probation or supervised release.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Clerk of the Court deliver two certified copies of this judgment to the United States Marshal of this district.

The Court recommends that the defendant be placed in an institution in Arizona.

The defendant shall self-surrender for service of sentence at the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons or United States Marshal no later than noon on July 20, 2001.
